

BLOCK TALK

News, views and issues in the city's neighbourhoods

Get In the Pink with next weekend's novel yard sale

Talk about a garage sale with a difference.

The Canadian Progress Club — Calgary Wild Rose Chapter — is holding its first-ever In the Pink Yard Sale next weekend.

The inaugural event will take place Saturday, Aug. 11 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Banff Trail Community Centre, 2115 20th Ave. N.W. All proceeds will go to the establishment of a High Risk Multi-Disciplinary Breast Health Clinic, in partnership with the Calgary Health Trust.

The Canadian Progress Club is a registered charity which has been involved in fundraising and community service work for more than 80 years. Last year, CPC clubs in Calgary raised more than $1-million in support of many different local charities.

In addition to a wide array of must-have garage sale collectibles, In the Pink will also feature special appearances by members of the Calgary Stampeders football club, four fantastic raffle prizes and can't-miss moments with Stamps' mascot Ralph the Dog.

"We've been having a lot of fun over the summer getting it organized," says yard sale committee member Shirley Stunzi. "Everybody's always got something they want to move out of their house — whether it's a gift they got or something they bought and never used — so we're looking for all those kinds of items from people."

Whatever is left over from the sale will be donated to the Women In Need Society.

Got something you'd like to donate? Feel free to drop off good-quality items at the Banff Trail Community Centre between 7 and 9 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 10. For more information, call Shirley at 295-7647.